THE Subscribers having become the owners of this Property, are extending their means of accommodation, and be able to afford comfortable entertain- pil is entered, except to cases of prefracted sickment to two hundred and fifty or three hundred visitors. Their cabins are well finished, airy and comfortable-their Stables good, with a pump of excellent water in the yard. Their Bar shall be furnished with the best Wines and Li quors that can be procured, and their Table with the best supplies the country will afford. A band of good Music will be alwags in attendance; in fact, they intend to spare neither trouble or expense in their efforts to render this establishment a pleasant and fashionable resort for both the shalthy and the sick.

As to the medicinal properties of the BUFFALO WATERS. it might be sufficient to refer to the subjoined statements of Doctors Harris and Venable, two gentlemen of di-tinction in their profession, and well acquainted with the properties and effect of the waters in all diseases. But as evidence of their Anti Billione effect, the subscriber, David Shelton, will state a fact as coming within his own knowledge, to wit: That for the last 30 years, families (often large) have resided at the Buffalo Springs, and that no instance of Bilious or Ague and Fever ever occurred in a family residing there; and so and that from the first of May to the first confident are the owners of the sove- Thursday in July. saignty of this water to Ague and Fever, and in so many instances have they witnessed cutes (generally in a few days,) without ever knowing it to fail in a sin gle instance, that they say to any person who will bring an Ague and Fever to Buffalo Springs, that if it don't cure, that he shall pay nothing for board. They might say much more of the efficacy of these waters in many other diseases, but they tors Harris and Venable.

DAVID SHELTON, CLEM. R. KENNON.

Having practiced Medicine in the neighbor-bood of the Buffalo Mineral Spring for the last twelve years, I have had irrequent opportuni-ties of testing the officacy of the water in various diseases. As a tonic and diuretic, it s not very far, if at all, surpassed by any water in the United States. Its setion on the Kidneys is prompt and powerful. It is also sudo-rific and slightly sperient. These medicinal properties combined, render it useful in all Black Silks and Printed Muslin, Dropsical affections, Visceral obstructions, Gauze Scarfs and Handkerchiefs, particularly of the Liver and Spieen, Culaneous Diseases, Dyspepsy, convalescences Fashionable Roperty and W. from Fever, Decaugement of the Secretag Or Pashionable Bonnets and Wreaths, gans, Intermittent Fever, and Female Complaints. In all chronic diseases in which the digestive organs are implicated, as cause or effect, this water acts with the happingt resuits. In Fever and Ague and protracted Remittegt Fever, it rarely, if ever, fails to afford permanent relief.

Viewed in reference to its peculiar action on the Kidneys it may be regarded as a powerful remedy in all the chronic diseases of these organs, as likewise those of the Bladder and its SADDLERY-Bridle bits, Buckles, appendages. As a remedy in chronic female Plush, Webbing, Trees & Morocco Skins. complaints, it is no less worthy of public conperience has taught me, that in the catalogue of human ills, there is no class of diseases more perplexing to the physician than there obstinate and painful affections The important organ peculiar to the sex, when in a state of de sangement, exerts an influence which, if not simely arrested by proper treatment, involves Mayland's Scotch Snuff. yery often, in one common rum, both the mind and the body of the hapless sufferer. It is need-"less here to enumerate these diseases; suffice Fancy and Bar Soap, at to say that there is scarcely one, depending and many other articles. pa a functional derangement or him of the argan referred to, that is not either permanentfor a month or two. The determination of fluede to the region of the pelvis consequent on its use, renders it a prompt, mild and efficient pramina, ogue remedy in youthful females. Its powers are equally conspicuous in removing shore diseases of the other sex, acquired by habits of dissipation and debauchery. The first effect produced on strangers by drinking the water is a slight giddiness of the head, which egon passes off, and is followed by an increase of appetite, a healthful glow on the purface, exhiberation of spirits, and a pleasing consciousness of new life and vigor infused in to every organ of the body.

S. H. HARRIS. Clarksville, Va. April 21, 1841.

I have for several years been attending to the effects of the waters of the Buffalo Mineral Spring, and can readily subscribe to the above recommendation, and would, in addition, remark, that after having noticed the effects of most of the tonic waters of the United States. have no hesitation in pronouncing it altogether the safest.
